As Catholics, we hope to achieve what we profess in the Apostles' Creed, "resurrection of the body" and "life everlasting. This promise of faith was already accomplished in Mary's assumption of body and soul in heaven. This is an excellent reason for us to celebrate and hope that we, too, can achieve that one day. We all know that her life was challenging, but her faith in God strengthened her. On this feast day of Assumption, let us echo Mary's Magnificat and recognise God's saving work in our lives. Fr Jake

"My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour for he has looked with favour on his lowly servant.
From this day all generations will call me blessed:
the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his Name.
He has mercy on those who fear him
in every generation.
He has shown the strength of his arm,
he has scattered the proud in their conceit.
He has cast down the mighty from their thrones,
and has lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he has sent away empty.
He has come to the help of his servant Israel
for he has remembered his promise of mercy,
the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children for ever." (Lk 1:46-55)
