Gospel Reflection.

Jesus' Baptism signals the beginning of his Public Ministry and the start of a period of Ordinary Time before the beginning of Lent. In St Luke's account of this event there is no dialogue between Jesus and John, signalling the disparity in their status. Jesus seems to be baptised along with the rest of the crowd, unnoticed by John. It is after the baptism, while at prayer on his own, that Jesus receives the revelation of the dove (a sign of divine presence) and he, alone, hears the voice from heaven. Some manuscripts report the words as "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased," while others report, "today I have begotten you." We frequently hear of Jesus at prayer in St Luke's Gospel. The scene is now set for the ministry to begin. Fr Philip

PARISH NOTICES NEXT SUNDAY is the beginning of Octave of Prayer for Christian Unity and ends 25th January.

THE LIFEBOAT BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT will look a bit different this year.... We will now be offering friendly 1:1 support, either face-to-face or by phone. If you feel it would help to talk about what you are feeling in a private and confidential space, you can call to arrange a chat with us. You are the only person who knows what your grief feels like, and talking about it can often help to lessen the intensity of these feelings. This is not professional counselling, but friendly and supportive listening. This could be a one-off chat, or a regular slot for a few weeks. Call Isabelle on 07873 953423 to arrange a suitable time. In 2026, we will also be offering group workshop sessions in which we will focus on various ways of coping with bereavement. Come along for coffee and social time as we gently explore ways to live with our loss and learn coping strategies. ^[1]_{SEP} The first of these workshops will be on Saturday February 21st, "Honouring the Dead," when we will explore ways of honouring the memory of those we have lost, and look at ways of keeping those memories fresh so that those we have loved still have a place in our lives. Places must be booked in advance. To book, or find out more, call Isabelle on 07873 953423. Look out for our new leaflets with more details, at the back of each church.
